

Color and Choices for Fall Floral Arrangements and Decorations

Presented by Shirley Brody, President, Garden Club of Monroeville

How can fresh, dried or artificial flowers and leaves be converted to works of art? Shirley Brody will present twelve fall floral arrangements and decorations, all showing how vase choice, fall foliage and traditional principles of design guide color, shape and texture choices.

Shirley is a retired secretary and retired florist. She has been a member of the Garden Club of Monroeville (formerly the University Park Garden Club) for 49 years and is currently the club president. She was one of 28 artists featured in the Artist At Work Gallery in Pittsburgh's Strip District, and the 1968 "Album of Beauty" calendar featured one of her designs.

Shirley has presented many programs for area garden clubs in both floral design and horticulture. Her most recent program "Gardens of the Garden Club of Monroeville" was presented with her husband, retired photographer Gil Brody, at the Monroeville Public Library in May 2015. Shirley and Gil have been married for 60 years and have four children and three grandchildren.
